Rev. 2024/12/12

LICENSE AGREEMENT

"Digital Content" shall mean any assets included in the downloadable file. This includes but is not limited to the design, artworks, Live2D models, 3D models, and scripts.

"Licensor" shall mean 0x4682B4 ("Hexose" or "六碳糖").

"Licensee" shall mean a natural person who purchased and obtained the Digital Content from the licensor's official release. Legal persons (companies, corporations, or groups) are not eligible to become Licensees by purchasing the Digital Content.

This agreement is made between the Licensor and the Licensee ("you"). By purchasing the Digital Content, you accept all the terms in this agreement.

1. LICENSE GRANT. The Licensor grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the Digital Content for non-commercial and commercial purposes, provided that you follow the terms in this Agreement.

2. TERM OF USE.

You shall not:

- Claim or imply that you are the author of the Digital Content.
- Claim or imply that you are the copyright holder or the intellectual property owner of the Digital Content.
- Resell or redistribute the Digital Content or copies of the Digital Content.
- Transfer, sublicense, or rent rights to use the Digital Content to third parties directly or indirectly.
- Make destructive, insulting, or offensive changes to the Digital Content.
- Create any works that involve controversial topics or sensitive information including but not limited to political, religious, or celebrity-related topics.
- Engage in inappropriate activities including but not limited to abusive, offensive, and hateful behaviours.
- Use the Digital Content in activities related to non-fungible tokens (NFTs), cryptocurrencies, or artificial intelligence (AI) generated art.

You may:

- Use the Digital Content in commercial activities including but not limited to VTuber activities, live streaming, and video creation.
- Make modifications to the Digital Content within the allowed range.
- Create derivative works based on the Digital Content.
- Sell merchandise of the derivative works created based on the Digital Content.
- Integrate the Digital Content into software or apps, provided that proper measures were taken to prevent third parties from gaining access, extracting, or using the original Digital Content and that the usage rights were not transferred, sublicensed, or rented to third parties.

3. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. The Licensor owns the copyright and other intellectual property rights to the Digital Content and copies. These rights are protected by laws, regulations, and international treaties. No rights were transferred or assigned to the Licensee through their purchase of the Digital Content.

4. AMENDMENTS. The provision of this Agreement is subject to change. The Licensor may amend the terms under this Agreement, including but not limited to additions, changes, or deletions, by releasing updates on the original release page of the Digital Content or their website. Therefore, you shall check the information released by the Licensor on a regular basis.

5. TERMINATIONS. Your license will terminate if you violate any term in this agreement. You must remove all copies of the Digital Content from your devices and stop using the Digital Content. Any published works containing the Digital Content that violates the terms of this Agreement must be removed from online access. Certain measures will be taken by the Licensor to remove published works that violate the terms or infringe the Licensor's rights with or without prior notice.

6. LIMITED WARRANTY. The Digital Content is provided "as-is." The Licensor gives no express nor implied warranties, guarantees or conditions.

7. LIMITED LIABILITY. The Licensor will bear no liability for any disputes, losses, or other issues caused by or related to your usage of the Digital Content.
